

2. Briefly describe any specific service activities that the RCC plans to undertake.

The RCC aims to support women entrepreneurs by enabling them to transform the ceramic products they produce in the workshop into economic value. These products will be offered for sale on online marketplaces. In addition, participation in local fairs and bazaars will be organized to facilitate direct sales of the ceramics.

3. Briefly describe how you will provide ongoing guidance and support to RCC members.

Ongoing guidance will be provided to RCC members in the marketing and sales processes of their products. Support will focus on the use of digital sales channels, brand development, and organizational processes, with the goal of establishing a sustainable income model for the members.
